Dear Guest,

The British Embassy in Bucharest and the International Organization for Migration (IOM), Mission in Romania welcome you to the high level conference: "Modern Slavery: The Impact of Labour Trafficking in Europe", the Romanian Parliament Palace, the I. G. Duca Hall, the 11th of October 2012.

We are honoured to have you present at this conference.

People trafficking for the purpose of labour exploitation is a growing problem. The Conference aims at increasing awareness among concerned governmental institutions and organisations as well as media regarding the labour trafficking phenomenon in Romania, its dimensions and human stories and at sharing information and addressing the core problems related to human trafficking in general and labour trafficking in particular.

Within the conference the "Trafficking Stories" Exhibition will be launched. The exhibition will feature photographs and stories of human trafficking aiming at focusing the attention of the conference participants and of the media on the issue of human traffic, with a special accent on labour trafficking.

Please find enclosed a copy of the detailed conference agenda.

The British Embassy in Bucharest and the International Organization for Migration (IOM), Mission in Romania wish to use this opportunity to convey to you the expression of their highest consideration.

Martin Harris
British Ambassador to Romania

Ion Crâciunel
Head of the IOM Mission in Romania
